

PERRETTI FARMS

1988 Yearlings

The 1988 yearling crop represented the first major entrée of Perretti Farms into the commercial yearling arena. All were sold at Harrisburg. The crop numbering 23 in total featured Perpetuity (Cam Fella-Jefs Eternity) a smallish bay colt who attracted a successful bid of $50,000 and would go on to pace in 1:51.3 while earning 308,741. The sales stopper that year was Publication at $175,000 who never raced but would go on to become a successful broodmare for Hanover Shoe Farms.
